

The Programme

The weekend begins with evening dinner on Thursday 5th April followed by the first session of devotional Bible teaching. Further sessions each morning and evening will also include times of worship, discussion and fellowship. Afternoons will be free with the opportunity of group outings and walks in the beautiful southern Black Forest.

Our main speaker for the weekend is:

Dr Bernhard Kaiser

Dr. Bernhard Kaiser studied theology at the STH in Basel, was pastor of a German church in Chile from 1978 to 1983 and then lectured in theology for 20 years in Giessen and Marburg. He founded and heads the Institute of Reformational Theology in Reiskirchen near Giessen, Germany, and is lecturer in Systematic Theology at the Selye-János University in Komárno, Slovakia. He is married, has three children and a grandchild. Making reformation theology fruitful in our present day is his hallmark

Our theme for the weekend is:

"Faith in the risen Lord Jesus"

The sessions will be conducted in both English and German or as may be required.

This Easter weekend is taking place in

Haus Barnabas

a Christian family guest house and retreat centre led by Pastor Len Holder, his wife Phyl with Tim & Deb Brooks and family.

Haus Barnabas is located in the village of Utzenfeld in the Wiese valley, seen here in the centre of the picture. We are just 30 miles from Basel and 20 miles from Freiburg and easily accessible.

For relaxation there are footpaths to suit every degree of fitness, cable cars up the mountains and excellent public transport and all guests receive a free bus and train pass for travel in the locality. Good exercise provides a wonderful excuse to indulge in the culinary specialities of the Black Forest!
